Recent NYC high school grads and current students can earn college credit through NYC x Freshman Year for Free. The program is offered by Modern States, a NYC-based charity that makes college more affordable and accessible through free online courses.

NYC x Freshman Year for Free provides a tuition-free on-ramp to college. This presents an opportunity for you to save up to 25% of the cost of a college degree. Plus, you can get paid $150 or more per course.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Modern States offers tuition-free online courses that prepare you for exams that lead to college credit. These freshman-level courses are taught by college professors and there are no prerequisites. By participating in NYC x Freshman Year for Free, you can stay on track for college while also earning cash.

COURSE OFFERINGS

NYC x Freshman Year for Free offers first year college classes, including: Spanish, College Composition, Analyzing and Interpreting Literature, Biology, Psychology, Sociology, College Algebra, Pre-Calculus, Calculus, and US History I.

HOW DOES THIS PROGRAM LEAD TO COLLEGE CREDIT?

The CLEP exams, administered by the College Board, are accepted for credit by more than 2,900 U.S. colleges and universities, including SUNY and many CUNYs.
